

The 3rd UP Asian Center
Graduate Students' Conference

CALL FOR PAPERS

---

The UP Asian Center Graduate Students' Conference is an annual gathering of young intellectuals who are actively engaged in studies of Asia and the Philippines. The 2007 Conference will be held on 23-24 November at the Bulwagang Sala'am, Romulo Hall, UP Diliman.

The conference aims not only to provide students with a multi-disciplinary forum where they can exchange ideas, but also to provide a training ground for scholarly presentations of research papers aimed at contributing to the existing body of knowledge about Asia-Pacific and the Philippines. Presenters must be currently enrolled in a graduate program in any college and at any university.

This year's theme is “Pax Asia-Pacifica in the 21st Century: Problems and Prospects.” Proposals on the following subtopics are welcome:

- Area Studies (Asian/Pacific Studies)
- Asia-Pacific Regional Security
- Arts and Literature
- Asian History and Local History
- Politics and International Relations
- Religion and Globalization
- Language and Culture
- Gender Issues
- Filipino Diaspora and Migration
- Regional Political Economy
